

A Nighttime Lullaby

By Helen J. Dixon

Good night, my love.
To sweet slumber, drift slowly.
My arms are around you, comforting.
My lips speak soft, adoring words, revering.
My heart beats with the joy you brought to my life, wondering.

I see your eye lashes sweep your cheek.
You're smiling as sleep engulfs you.
Sleep soundly, my love, peacefully.
And know when you awaken, I'll be there to guide you into the splendor of morning.
