

Faith

By Helen J. Dixon

When another believes in your growth
though you are full of doubt,
faith brings about self-love.
It draws from the inner depths
an eternal spring
by which your thirst is slaked.
You find strengths reserved;
Abilities untapped;
It impels you along a path
of discovery toward maturity.
All thanks to another's trust in you.