

Worshipping

By Helen J. Dixon

Our bodies join in my temple of life
The fluid motion like ocean waves awash my insides with pleasure.
We're both priest and penitent all at once, in the worshipping.