

Shine On Me

By Marla J. Deaton

I don't want to be hard,
That's not the way I was made.
But I can't stand for being walked on,
Or like the flower that can only fade.

I fight alone and fall on my face,
Every single time.
But when I turn it all over to You,
Only then can I shine.

The End
