

Can You Feel It?

By Robin Lipinski

What?

The power from the shift. Where?

They know. Who?

Soon. When?

Flashing with power, 'live naked girls inside.'

Neon lust lurking inside one who only knows the street.

When darkness falls, the fallen seek.

Close your eyes now to what you want to see,

Close your eyes now as the red light throbs with your heart,

Close your eyes as her body robs you blind,

And when you're through,

Turn off the light.

The End
